Attached Mail Message (Blind Carbon Copy)  From:  To: Subject: Re: GTMO  Message:  Thanks  Consistent with some of what I've been told by others re the transition of CITF be to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will bry to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.  >>>  D7/31 12:53 PM >>> b6 -1    b7c -1	GroupWise Re	ad Mail Message Menu Page 1 of	2
Attached Mail Message (Blind Carbon Copy)  From:    b6 -1     b7c -1     Subject:   Re: GTMO     Message:   Thanks   Sorty Imissed your call. You'r e-mail is Very helpful and!     to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will ity to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.    >>>   D7/31 12:53 PM >>> b6 -1     Things here are in a state of transition. The Bureau and CITF have parted ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrojators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking fo, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the prior on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the prior of the prior on what we're trying to heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't From:    Subject:   Sorty   Imissed your call. You'r & mall is very helpful and	Close
Subject:  Re: GTMO  Message: Thanks Sorry Imissed your call. You'r e-mail is very helpful and consistent with some of what I've been told by others re the transition of CITF to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will try to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.  >>>		Historia Managara (Rlind Carbon Cony)
Subject:  Re: GTMO  Message: Thanks Sorry limissed your call. You'r e-mail is Very helpful and?  consistent with some of what I've been told by others re the transition of CITF to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will try to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.  >>>	Attache	d Man Massage (Billid Carbon Copy)
Subject:  Re: GTMO  Message: Thanks Sorry limissed your call. You'r e-mail is Very helpful and?  consistent with some of what I've been told by others re the transition of CITF to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will try to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.  >>>	-
Subject:  Re: GTMO  Message:  Thanks  consistent with some of what I've been told by others re the transition of CITF be to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will try to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.  >>>		D6 −1
Message: Thanks Sorry lamissed your call. Your & mail is very helpful and consistent with some of what I've been told by others re the transition of CITF to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will try to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.  >>>	То:
consistent with some of what I've been told by others re the transition of CITF to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will try to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.    D7/31 12:53 PM >>> b6 -1	Subject:	Re: GTMO consistent with some of what I've been told by others re the transition of CITF to the tribunals. I am very concerned about what you report about DHS. I will try to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.  >>>	Message:	Thanks Sonv Imissed your call. Your e-mail is very helpful and	÷.,
Things here are in a state of transition. The Bureau and CITF have parted ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're falking fo, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the prior of doing their interviews of with the prior of the interview of the inte			b 6
Things here are in a state of transition. The Bureau and CITF have parted ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using factics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out vesterday and the CA assignment roster came out vesterday and th			h7
Things here are in a state of transition. The Bureau and CITF have parted ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking fo, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with them prior on observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a stroble light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA		try to call you so we can discuss all of this more directly.	~ .
Things here are in a state of transition. The Bureau and CITF have parted ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking fo, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with them prior on observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a stroble light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA
Things here are in a state of transition. The Bureau and CITF have parted ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a stroble light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA		07/31 12:53 PM >>> h6 -1
Things here are in a state of transition. The Bureau and CITF have parted ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the interview of the adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've theard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA	vicinia decis		, i ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the we're trying to adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA		b7C -1
the arrival of long term personnel and identifying detainees with a Bureau nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with them prior on observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a stroble light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to out out with told the new Admin CA.		Things here are in a state of transition. The Bureau and CITF have parted nexus. Once these detainees are identified, they'll become "projects" and we should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the interview of the adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday		ways as CITF is concentrating on the tribunals. The Bureau is gearing up for should have a much greater impact then we have now.  I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about heing asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with before the adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA I've been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with them prior on observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual porn movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the
approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about heing asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees the observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of what we're trying to adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the RA Amen Admin CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the RA Amen Admin CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the RA Amen Admin CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the RA Amen Admin CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the RA Amen Admin CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the RA Amen Admin CA assignme		should have a much greater impact then we have now.
approximately 12 interviews. The common theme seems to be the detainees are all extremely frustrated about heing asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees the observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of what we're trying to adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the RA assignment roster came out yesterday and the		the been here 2 weeks today and have tagged along and observed are all extremely frustrated about being asked the same questions, over and over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the we're trying to adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to our unit with over again, by different interrogators. Once the projects are initiated, that should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with The adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual porn movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to our unit with told the new Admin CA uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.  I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detained, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with fine adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to unit with told the new Admin CA.
I've met with the BISC (Biscuit) people several times and found them to be a great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with I had adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 bits investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to our unit with told the new Admin CA	* . * * ;	should resolve itself. Most of the detainees I've observed have been great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual porn movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 15 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to the care of t		uncooperative and untruthful and some refuse to speak.
great resource. They know everything thats going on with each detainee, who they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. The encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with the adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual porn movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out vesterday and the CA assignment to our unit with told the new Admin CA broken to talk to the provided the country with the satisfactory and the cA broken to the provided the pour unit with told the new Admin CA broken the still be assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA broken the still be a broken to the provided the pro			• they're talking to, who the leaders are, etc. I've encouraged the interview teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with fine badjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 b70. DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to our unit with told the new Admin CA.	100 teams to meet with them prior to doing their interviews. We're still fighting the battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with The adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual porn movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment troit with told the new Admin CA.	adapted the state battle with DHS which routinely has a negative impact on what we're trying to do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with The adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA is assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA broken.
do. Last evening I went to observe an interview of with adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual porn movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 15 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment CA. adjoining room, observable from the monitoring booth, was occupied by 2 DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 15 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to our unit with told the new Admin CA.			6
DHS investigators showing a detainee homosexual poin movies and using a strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to our unit with told the new Admin CA.			70 strobe light in the room. We moved our interview to a different room! We've heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as a described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA is assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA. then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA assignment to our unit with told the new Admin CA.
and others (wrapping in Israeli flag, constant loud music, cranking the A/C down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA is assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA b7C.		heard that DHS interrogators routinely identify themselves as FBI Agents and down, etc). The next time a real Agent tries to talk to that guy, you can imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA is assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA brown.		then interrogate a detainee for 16 - 18 hours using tactics as described above imagine the result.  I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA is assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA b7c
I haven't heard anything about the housing situation. A new housing assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA is assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA b7c assignment roster came out yesterday and the CA is assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA b7C		imagine the result. assignment roster came out vesterday and the CA is assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA b7C		I haven't heard anothing about the housing cituation. A pay housing assigned to our unit with told the new Admin CA b7C			-1
			: -
			•