The Office of the Prosecutor:

Jonathan Moses

Katya Melluish

Ignacio Tredici

THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL TRIBUNAL FOR RWANDA (the “Tribunal”),

SITTING as Judge Jai Ram Reddy, confirming judge;

BEING SEIZED of the “Prosecutor’s Urgent Ex-Parte Motion to Rescind the Nondisclosure Order of [13] June 2005 Relating to the Indictment and Warrant for Arrest”, filed on 26 April 2007;

HAVING CONSIDERED the Indictment against Dominique Ntawuriryayo, filed on 13 June 2005 and confirmed on 13 June 2005, as well as the Warrant of Arrest, issued on 21 September 2006;

HAVING CONSIDERED Rules 52 and 53 of the Tribunal’s Rules of Procedure and Evidence (the “Rules”);

HEREBY DECIDES the motion.

1. In its initial request for confirmation, the Prosecution requested that the Indictment and the Warrant of Arrest against Dominique Ntawuriryayo be placed under seal. In accordance with Rule 53 and in the interests of justice, the confirming judge granted this request and ordered the non-disclosure of the Indictment and all related orders as well as all supporting materials to the Indictment as part of its confirmation decision of 13 June 2005.

2. The Prosecution has now made an application to have the Indictment and the Warrant of Arrest unsealed on the grounds that the interests of justice are not served by keeping the information from the public.

3. In the Tribunal’s view, non-disclosure measures are no longer necessary with regard to the Indictment and the Warrant of Arrest. The Tribunal maintains, however, the protective measures ordered in connection with the supporting materials to the Indictment.

FOR THE ABOVE REASONS, THE TRIBUNAL

ORDERS the unsealing of the Indictment and Warrant of Arrest against Dominique Ntawuriryayo.

Arusha, 27 April 2007.
